To Go on Boat Train.

The effort of Springfield to have President Taft stop there for a short time on his way to Ticonderoga from this city has resulted in the following statement from the president, according to a Washington despatch:

Representative Gillett called at the White House and extended to President Taft the invitation of Springfield to visit the city on July 5, when the safe and sane Fourth will be repeated. The president declared that he would be pleased to stop over at the city if the time schedule of his train taking him from Norwich, Ct., to Ticonderoga, where he will attend the Champlain tercentenary celebration, permitted. It was discovered, however, that the plans provide for the president being in Nor-To Go on Boat Train. Compound Fracture of Left Leg.

A Pole named Vandic, said to have come to this country only a few months ago, and his left leg fractured both above and below the knee Thursday night. The accident happened in the print shop of the bleachery about 8 o'clock. The Pole is said to have slippled on the oily floor and to have fallen between a pulley and shaft. He was sent to the Backus hospital in the ambulance, where an examination showed a severe compound fracture, which was reduced. The man was resting quite comfortably Friday night and will probably save his leg. C. H. Hobson leaves today to spend Memorial day at his home in Palmer, Mass. There will be no school Mon-
